BENEFITS BRIEFING: Retirement Plan Guidance & Regulations

Thursday, December 4, 2:00-3:00 p.m. ET

The American Benefits Council will host a Benefits Briefing webinar on Thursday, December 4, at 2 p.m. Eastern Time, to discuss the outlook for regulatory and other guidance over the next year that will affect employer-sponsored retirement plans.

Jan Jacobson, senior counsel, retirement policy, will moderate the call. She will be joined by Kent Mason and Michael Hadley, partners with Davis & Harman LLP, who will describe what guidance to expect, and how that guidance might affect employer plans.

We will take questions from webinar participants throughout the session and attempt to answer as many as possible. Members are encouraged to submit questions for the webinar in advance.

A recording of this session will be available by request.

NOTE: Participation in Council webinars may be used toward continuing education/renewal requirements for many professional accreditation programs, but only by means of self-certification. Descriptions of past programs are available by clicking here. Please retain your registration confirmation for your verification records.

Background:

Regulatory agencies – including those with jurisdiction over employer-sponsored benefit plans – will soon issue their semi-annual agendas with topics that are expected to be the subject of formal guidance during the next year. The most recent semi-annual agendas, released in May, described a great number of projects that may be issued within the next 14 months, as detailed in the Council's May 29 Benefits Byte story.

For questions related to registration – If you have colleagues at your organization who would like to participate in this session, but do not regularly receive Council materials, please contact Deanna Johnson, director, membership, or Sondra Williams, membership services coordinator, at (202) 289-6700.

The American Benefits Council is the national trade association for companies concerned about federal legislation and regulations affecting all aspects of the employee benefits system. The Council's members represent the entire spectrum of the private employee benefits community and either sponsor directly or administer retirement and health plans covering more than 100 million Americans.
